

WE CAN Community Builder

WE CAN invites you to partner with us as a Community Builder. This program is for businesses who support WE CAN's mission and believe in our transformational services. Not only will your business receive visibility and recognition for your generosity, you also will be taking a powerful step in supporting Cape Cod women and the community as a whole.

Community Builders make a commitment of giving for three years to support WE CAN's programs and services and ensure our work endures into the future.
